

Cynthia Hayes
Motors Holding – Portfolio Accountant
General Motors

Cynthia currently serves as the Motors Holding Portfolio Accountant for the South Central, West, and Southeast regions. In this role she is responsible for working with Business Office Managers and Controllers on accounting related matters and Motors Holding policies and procedures. She has 32 years of experience with General Motors and has held positions in the South Central Region and GM Renaissance Center where she worked in Sales, Service, Distribution, and the Dealer Contractual Group. She holds degrees from both Central State University and Central Michigan University. She is married and enjoys serving in the media ministry at her Dallas based church, volunteering at non-profit organizations, and travelling.