

Catrina M Craft is a CPA and business financial advisor with over 20 years of experience in accounting, tax, and business strategy. Katrina has been a part of several start-up companies as well as Fortune 500 companies. This wide range of experience has given her a deep understanding of how businesses operate, which she now utilizes as a financial advisor to help small businesses grow.

In addition to her professional achievements, Katrina is also an educator. She has shared her knowledge of accounting and tax strategies specific to small businesses through various forums, including "The Michael Baisden Show", "The Rickey Smiley Morning Show", CW33 TV, WFAA 8 News, and as a contributing writer in "Easy Accounting for Real Estate Investors".

Catrina provides customized business advisory services, money management and Tax Strategies which have saved clients up to $150,000 annually.

Catrina created the "Wealth Intelligence Map" coaching course to help business owners achieve power and control over their finances. The course is designed to help business owners create a plan for transformation and business growth. She is passionate about helping people take control of their finances and maximize their financial goals
